LOCATION:

This immaculate home is just 30 minutes from Livingston, MT in the gorgeous Paradise Valley. Livingston, with a population of 7,000 people, has a small town feel with all the culture of a city. Two theaters, art galleries all along Main Street, a new state of the art hospital, every type of restaurant you can imagine, a golf course, the iconic Murray Bar and Hotel, a huge 4th of July celebration and rodeo, and many wonderful small businesses provide everything one needs for country living. For a big city feel, the town of Bozeman (population 52,000) is an hour away where you can access shopping, Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport, Montana State University, several golf courses, and even more art and culture. The small town of Emigrant is five minutes away with establishments such as Follow Yer Nose BBQ, Wildflour Bakery, and The Old Saloon. Sage Lodge & Spa and Chico Hot Springs are just minutes away for fine dining, relaxation, and a mountain hot springs experience. Between The Old Saloon, Pine Creek Lodge, The Montana Music Ranch, and various small local venues, you can see big name music headliners at small, quaint venues with Paradise Valley as the backdrop.

RECREATION:

Paradise Valley is known for not only its spectacular views, but also the abundance of recreational activities right out your back door. Within minutes you have access to hunting in several mountain ranges and public lands; fishing, floating, paddle-boarding, kayaking, or canoeing on the Yellowstone River; hiking trails to explore any type of terrain or difficulty; cross country or downhill skiing; snowmobiling; or simply scenic drives and photography opportunities galore. Yellowstone National Park, where millions of people come from around the world to visit each year, is less than an hour away. You could spend days exploring to see diverse wildlife, geothermal features such as Old Faithful geyser, Old Faithful Lodge, Mammoth Hot Springs, canyons, waterfalls, lakes, and rivers. Bridger Bowl Ski Area is less than an hour away and has eight chair lifts, four lodges, and over 2,000 acres of terrain to explore. Big Sky Resort is 100 miles away and is the second largest ski resort in the United States by acreage. It has over 250 runs and 36 lifts. Besides the fishing on the Yellowstone River you can drive the short distance to the Gallatin, Shields, Madison, or Jefferson Rivers or hike to a nearby high mountain lake. There is something for every outdoor enthusiast in the Paradise Valley.
